

FIS9-2000-0282

2

9 of the technical skills requested;
10 means for submitting the request to contracted suppliers by e-mail
11 notification notifying the supplier that a new request has been entered into 12 the SMA application for them to review and submit a candidate against;
13 means for receiving from a supplier a candidate or candidates with 14 appended resumes as appropriate; and
15 means for displaying for the user the supplier responses and 16 associated resumes.

1 Claim 3 (Amended). The Skills Matching Application of claim 1, further
2 comprising [the step of] means for responding to a user's selection of a
3 candidate or candidates by invoking an approval and procurement process.

1 Claim 4 (Amended). A Web-based Skills Matching Application (SMA)
2 which allows a user to communicate requirements to technical service
3 suppliers in a way that significantly reduces the process time and improves
4 the accuracy of requests sent to suppliers comprising [the steps of]:
5 means for accessing the SMA from a Web-based
6 Requisition/Catalog (REQ/CAT) Web application;
7 means for selecting by a user who needs to request a technical
8 contractor a SMA Web site;
9 means for prompting the user through a series of screens in the 10 SMA Web site to enter a Statement of Work (SOW) and complete a skills
11 detail checklist for each of the technical skills requested;
12 means for submitting the request to contracted suppliers who are 13 sent an e-mail notification notifying the supplier that a new request has 14 been entered into the SMA application for them to review and submit a 15 candidate against;
16 means for accessing the SMA Web site database by a supplier to 17 view the request details;